

Flag Colors

This banner of love and devotion, now being folded is a memorial to the courageous service of our comrade.

The one we come to honor this day.

The RED stripes tell us of the blood, sweat and tears that has been offered and conquered by our comrade's devotion to the continued freedom of his country.

The WHITE stripes boldly proclaim the peace that he helped bring to our future generations.

The BLUE field represents the sky that overlooks our land and denotes the watchfulness of God, The Eternal!

Present flag to OD (Officer of the Day) Salute flag, Replaced OD at head of casket.
