

UNITED VETERAN'S LEAGUE
"Serving All U.S. Military Families"

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The United Veteran League offers a military funeral chapel service for Honorably Discharged Veterans. This service consists of the reading of a chapel service, 21 gun volleys, filing by and a final salute to the Veteran, taps, folding and presentation of the flag to the family.

The United Veteran League holds meetings at 6:00pm on the fourth (4th) Monday of each Month. These meeting are held in the United Veterans League building located at 350 South Van Avenue Houma, Louisiana. The United Veteran League will issue you a monogrammed white uniform shirt and garrison cap. You must furnish black pants, black shoes and black tie. That is worn at leagues functions ONLY. This issued clothing remains the property of The United Veteran League and must be returned if for any reason you leave the organization.

Must submit a copy of your service discharge form (DD-214, DD-215, or for World War II Veterans, a WD form),
